("Nicholas Parking"), Ivy Parking, Corp. ("Ivy Parking"), Bienvenido, LLC ("Bienvenido Parking"), Castle Parking Corp. ("Castle Parking"), Sage Parking Corp. ("Sage Parking") and Sam Podolak ("Podolak") (collectively, "Defendants"), by and through their attorneys, Seyfarth Shaw LLP, request that plaintiffs Angelo Pena, Rolando Rojas, Jose Diroche, Franklin Santana, and any individual who consents to join this action (collectively, "Plaintiffs") produce the following documents at the offices of Seyfarth Shaw LLP, 620 Eighth Avenue, New York, New York 10018 within twenty (30) days of service of this request.

I. DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. This request for documents is addressed to Plaintiffs, their agents, representatives or attorneys, or any of them. If the requested documents are known to Plaintiffs to exist, but are not in the possession, custody or control of Plaintiffs, their agents, representatives or attorneys, if any, or any of them, it is requested that Plaintiffs so indicate or produce documents that show the name of the person or entity in whose custody such documents presently reside.

2. "Person" shall mean and include a natural person, individual, partnership, firm, corporation, or any kind of business or legal entity, its agents or employees.

3. The term "you," "your" or "Plaintiffs" shall refer to Angelo Pena, Rolando Rojas, Jose Diroche, Franklin Santana, and/or any individual who consents to join this action, their counsel and any consultants, experts, investigators, agents, representatives, or other persons acting or purporting to act on Plaintiffs' behalf.

4. The term "Complaint" shall refer to the Complaint filed on behalf of Plaintiffs, bearing Civil Action No. 07-CV-7013 (RJH).

5. The term "document" includes, by way of illustration only and not by way of limitation, the following, whether printed or reproduced by any process, or written, and/or produced by hand, and whether or not claimed to be privileged or otherwise excludable from discovery, namely: notes; correspondence; communication of any nature; telegrams; electronic mail; computer files; memoranda; notebooks of any character; summaries or records of personal conversations; diaries; routing slips or memoranda; calendars; reports; publications; photographs; minutes or records of meetings; transcripts of oral testimony or statements; reports and/or summaries of interviews; reports and/or summaries of investigations; agreements, contracts, and collective bargaining agreements, including all revisions and/or modifications thereof; reports and/or summaries of negotiations; court papers; brochures; pamphlets; press releases; drafts of, revisions of drafts of, and/or translations of any documents; tape recordings; record and dictation belts; audio tapes and video tapes. Any document with any marks on any sheet, back, or side thereof, including by way of illustration only and not by way of limitation initials, stamped indicia, any comment, or any notation of any character, not part of the original text, or any reproduction thereof, is to be considered a separate document for purposes of this document request.

6. "Concerning" shall be interpreted broadly to include both explicit and implicit reference, and shall be construed to mean all of the following, as appropriate: relating to, pertaining to, referring to, regarding, describing, evidencing, constituting, defining, discussing, containing, construing, embodying, reflecting, stating, dealing with, prepared in contemplation of, prepared in connection with, prepared as a result of, or in any way pertaining to the matter specified in the Request.

7. If any document responsive to any request has been lost, mutilated, or destroyed, Plaintiffs are requested to submit in lieu of each such document a written statement which:

- (a) describes in detail the nature of the document and its contents;
- (b) identifies the person who prepared or authored the document and, if applicable, the person or persons to whom the document was sent;
- (c) specifies the date on which the document was prepared or transmitted; and

8. If there are no documents in Plaintiffs' possession, custody, or control which are responsive to a particular request, but Plaintiffs believe that such documents exist, so state and identify each such document and state to which request(s) the documents are responsive.

9. Any document responsive to any request should be identified as being responsive to the specific request involved. If the same document is responsive to more than one request, all requests to which it is responsive should be identified.

10. Consistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, these document requests shall be continuing so as to require Plaintiffs to supplement their responses when and if they obtain any further documentation subsequent to the service of their responses.

11. In construing these requests: (i) the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular; (ii) the masculine, feminine, or neuter pronouns, respectively, shall include the other genders; (iii) "and" as well as "or" shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively so as to bring within the scope of these requests all documents that might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope; and (iv) the present tense of a verb shall include its past tense and vice versa.
